

Watershed Watch is hands-on science focused on understanding our world. Science, like art, is most inspiring when experienced. Watershed Watch is a collaboration between ECSU and The University of New Hampshire. Participants will receive $250 during the 2009-2010 academic year and another $250 during the two week summer program August 3 to 14, 2009. Transportation to ECSU and summer housing will be provided. More details on the Watershed Watch Program can be found at <http://nia.ecsu.edu/ww/ww.html>
